

2 ■ WEDNESDAY, JUNE 24, 2009

BROKERS WEEKLY

Have You Heard ...

AHARLEM non profit working with local kids is looking forward to moving into some swanky new digs free of charge courtesy of condo developer

RGS Holdings LLC.

The firm, which is building the 12-story 2280FDB on Frederick Douglas Boulevard, said it will lease for no fee a 1,400 s/f second floor space to The Jets of Harlem, a group that uses sports and team building to help local children aged six to 18 reach their full potential.

"Hans Futterman, principal of RGS Holdings, said, "As a resident of Harlem, I know how much The Jets of Harlem, Inc. contributes to the community. It is a wonderful organization whose mission I strongly stand by and hope to see flourish in its new home."

Halstead Development Marketing is the exclusive agent for the 89-unit property that's expected to be complete next spring.