

June 18, 2009

The Jets land a Manhattan home!

OK, not those Jets. Rather, it's the Jets of Harlem -- a youth football and cheerleading organization.

In a kind gesture calling to mind Bloomberg's noble efforts on behalf of Gang Green several years back, new uptown condo development 2280 FDB has agreed to donate its second-floor community space rent-free to the Jets of Harlem to be used for team and coach meetings and tutoring sessions.

Woody Johnson, eat your heart out. -- Adam Bonislawski

